

Is giving through Nevada Community Foundation right for your clients?

Ten Questions to help you decide whether the Nevada Community Foundation can help your client

1. Do I have clients who care deeply about their local community or about philanthropy in general?
2. Do they give to more than one charitable cause or organization?
3. Are they considering creating a private foundation but concerned about cost and administrative complexity?
4. Are they interested in creating a personal or family legacy?
5. Would they like to stay personally involved in their charitable giving?
6. Do they want the peace of mind that comes from knowing someone will always be there to ensure that their charitable wishes are being carried out the way they would want?
7. Do they want to pass on their values and teach their children to give back to the community?
8. Do they want to receive maximum tax benefit for their charitable contributions under federal law?
9. Do they place a premium on sound fiduciary management of their contributions?
10. Is it important to them that the charities they support handle their contributions wisely?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, your clients could benefit from knowing more about Nevada Community Foundation. We're here to help.
